It certainly would be most difficult for me to understand that God gave the people in Old Testament times so many patterns (Noah was given a pattern for the ark, Moses was given a pattern for the tabernacle, David and Solomon were given a pattern for the temple, etc.), yea, and instructed them in so many and variegated items, but when it came to us who live in New Testament times that He just left us to be “on our own.” Can anyone truly believe that today, the people of God, are completely “patternless!” Thanks be to God that He did not do any such thing. Cry if you like, but we do have a divine design. Whether you call or term it a figure, a form, model, plan, order, criterion, blueprint, yardstick, rule book, guide, mold, measure, example, etc., etc., that is precisely what it is. Indeed, the New Testament is “the” pattern. We MUST be absolutely diligent in “walking in the footsteps of the Master” (1 Peter 2:21). If we do not emulate the New Testament pattern, we will be just like those we read about in Judges 17:6; 21:25, that is, we, too, can just “do that which is right in our own eyes.” We know today that is exactly what is happening among us, as so many are dead set against a norm, a standard, yea, against rule and regulations. Does not God Almighty have the right to rule?...

Since there is but one way to walk, since that way comes to us by faith, since that faith comes by the hearing of the word of the Lord, since there can be no Biblical faith where there is no word, since we have the word written down, since we are not in any way to change it (go beyond it), since it has been once and for all delivered, since we cannot please God without the faith and without faith, since we must have Bible authority, since we have only one New Testament, since man has been warned about teaching any other doctrine, since we can prove what is right, since some do teach contrary to the Master’s teaching, since only the narrow way leads to heaven, since Jesus has spoken, since the word that Jesus spake will judge us in the last day, since Jesus said he was THE WAY, THE TRUTH AND THE LIFE, and since we do have a pattern to follow and God does not lie (Titus 1:2; Heb 6:16-18), pardon me then if I am too bold, brazen, barefaced, brassy, and brash when I make the assertion and the averment, the promise and the pledge that THERE IS ONLY ONE WAY. There is “no other” way for a man to come to God (John 14:6; 6:44-45).
