

Glenpool Church of Christ

Winning Souls Is a Christian Duty (2)

God remembered a man named Cornelius. He knew Cornelius feared God, was quick to help the poor, and was a devout man who prayed often. Cornelius, however, had not heard the gospel and had not become a Christian. God sent an angel to Cornelius; but God did not tell him how to become a Christian. Instead he told Cornelius to send for Peter who would “tell you words by which you might be saved” (Acts 11:14).

God watched a man travel from Ethiopia to Jerusalem to worship in the temple there. He saw his deep interest in God’s word as he read from Isaiah. But God did not speak to him. Instead an angel told Philip to join the traveler and Philip taught him the gospel of Christ (Acts 8:26-40).

Jesus saw the zeal and dedication of a man named Saul and He knew that this man acted with a clear conscience even when he persecuted the church. Jesus appeared to Saul on the road to Damascus; but He did not tell Saul how to correct his sin. Instead Jesus told him to “go into the city and it will be told you what you must do” (Acts 9:1-6). Then Jesus sent Ananias who told Saul to “arise and be baptized and wash away your sins” (Acts 22:16).

God had the opportunity to speak the words of salvation directly to these men but God did not do that; nor will God do that today. Instead God entrusts the gospel to Christians and expects us to “Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation.” (Mark 16:15).

God does not personally reveal the message of salvation to mankind today. He does not speak directly to us or save us by a direct operation of the Holy Spirit. Instead God uses humans, who will share his inspired gospel with others who are lost. His message saves, but God uses people to share his message. “For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, it pleased God through the folly of what we preach to save those who believe” (1 Corinthians 1:21).

When Paul encouraged the church to pray for the lost; he did not ask them to pray for a direct operation of the Spirit. Instead he said we are to devote ourselves to prayer “that God may open to us a door for the word, to declare the mystery of Christ” and to make the message clear (Colossians 4:2-4; cf. Ephesians 6:18-19).

Peter taught that we are purified through our obedience to the truth and born again, “not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God” (1 Peter 1:22-23). “And this word is the good news that was preached to you” (1:25).

MIGHTY MEN CONFERENCE

The Kingfisher congregation will host a conference to help mentor men of all ages to stand and lead on! It is Saturday, Jan 14 in Kingfisher, OK (just north and west of OKC) from 9 am to about 3:30. The cost is $25 per person, which includes, registration fee, all materials and a box lunch. See the flyer posted on the bulletin board for more information.

PHONE CALL!

Hey, did you get a phone call last Sunday morning (really early!) from Ben? An automated phone message was sent out to everyone letting us know about the time change for services that day (due to ice and cold). If you did not get a phone call or if you would rather it went to a different phone number please let Karen or the office know ASAP! There is sure to be another phone call this winter.

Thank you.

My Christmas Wish For You

My Christmas wish for you, my friend
 Is not a simple one
 For I wish you hope and joy and peace
 Days filled with warmth and sun
 I wish you love and friendship too
 Throughout the coming year
 Lots of laughter and happiness
 To fill your world with cheer
 May you count your blessings, one by one
 And when totaled by the lot
 May you find all you've been given
 To be more than what you sought
 May your journeys be short, your burdens light
 May your spirit never grow old
 May all your clouds have silver linings
 And your rainbows pots of gold
 I wish this all and so much more
 May all your dreams come true
 May you have a Merry Christmas friend
 And a Happy New Year, too...

PLASTIC BAGS

We no longer need plastic bags for the Mark 10 program. Many thanks for bringing them!

THANK YOU

Thank you to Mrs. Barbra and Mrs Lilia, we had a great time at your home Monday night for our Christmas party. The atmosphere with all the Christmas decorations made it feel as though we were really in the north pole! The kids and I loved seeing everything from the little village to the upside down tree and the chili was incredible. Thank you so much for having us, it was definitely a Christmas party I will never forget. Haden Brill

CHRISTMAS CARDS

Please pick up your sack of Christmas cards today!
