IN NEED OF OUR PRAYERS

- The Killebrew's nephew, Mike Fletcher, is quarantined on a Navy ship recovering from Corona virus. He is slowly beginning to feel better, prayers for a complete recovery.
- Bailey Dodson, daughter of a friend of Sarah Hallsted's, has an inoperable brain tumor and it has begun to grow along with increased swelling and fluid build up causing a lot of problems for Bailey. Doctors are talking about inserting a shunt, pray that is an option for Bailey and that it gives her some much needed relief.
- The Prescott's sister-in-law, Julia Tanquory, passed away in Colorado last week due to complications from Corona virus.

LETTER FROM AN ELDER

Expectations

Romans 12

Our congregation embarked on a pulpit minister search six months ago. You will remember that for several weeks in our church bulletin, we reflected on twenty-eight different qualifications of an effective minister, and asked the Lord to direct us to one of his mighty servants in the kingdom who would possess most or all of these qualities. We prayed that God would send us a man of intelligence, integrity, perseverance, and who possessed a joyful heart—a man of good character and strong faith who has a personal relationship with Jesus Christ and who is an encouragement and mentor to others. We asked God to help us find an experienced minister who is an effective preacher and teacher of the Word—a student of the Bible himself who has an understanding of the scriptures and the ability to communicate it's deeper meaning to seekers of the truth. We implored God to direct us to a courageous evangelist with a passion for leading lost souls to Christ and a focus on building disciples—a godly man who humbly models Christian virtues by providing care and comfort to the sick and needy through his personal ministry.

Throughout this search process, our prayers were for mutual growth and for spiritual maturity. We wanted to find a pulpit minister who would help build up our congregation and who our congregation could also be a blessing to in return. We asked a lot of God, but nothing is too difficult for Him. God heard our prayers and blessed our search. He has met (and in many ways exceeded) our expectations to find someone with all the qualifications of an effective minister. God has made it possible for Brother David Gray and his wife, Jan, to join our congregation in the very near future. We are overjoyed that they will become part of our family, and we will become a part of theirs. Praise be to God!

In the strangest of times, God is answering our prayers. He has prepared a servant with all the talents needed to fill our pulpit, and He is preparing us even now to be a congregation that will recognize and appreciate even the smallest of His blessings. God wants us to be more than bystanders in the kingdom. He wants us to be active and growing. God expects all of us to be partners in the ministry of the Glenpool Church of Christ. Yes, Brother Gray will be the new pulpit minister, but we must all dedicate ourselves to use our individual talents to be a supportive part of the ministry. For as in one body we have many members, and the members do not all have the same function, so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them... (Romans 12:4-6).
