ANNOUNCEMENTS

This congregation is now partnering with DHS in helping two families in need. A young father is trying to get his daughter back in his care. To help him accomplish this worthy goal he needed help with groceries and transportation. A young mother and two of her children (ages 5 and 1) are staying temporarily with a grandparent of the children. They needed clothes and a few groceries. Thanks to your love and generosity these immediate needs have been met.

How you can continue helping:

1. pray
2. go with David Gray next month to deliver a second bus pass to the young father
3. locate an inexpensive but reliable vehicle for the young father
4. donate new or gently used clothes for the young mother's two children (boys size 6 small, girls size 18 months and size 5 diapers)
5. help transport willing families to and from worship at our congregation

In lieu of an in person baby shower, we will have a gift table set up in the foyer today through January 31st to honor Sutton Brown Phillips. Pampers or Huggies diapers are preferred.

Delwayne & Jessica Rucker welcomed Soldier Rucker into the world last week, weighing 5lbs 15oz & 20 inches long. Mom & baby are well & should be able to go home Sunday. Congratulations to Delwayne & Jessica on their sweet new bundle of joy!

Thank you to everyone who has provided meals to our members over the past few weeks. What a blessing it is to have a congregation that rallies around each other for all occasions: joyous celebrations of birth, recovery from sickness & comforting those that have lost loved ones. We are blessed & in return bless others.
