What to

What to

What will be 2020’s legacy?

When you and I look back on the year 2020, how will we remember that difficult year? For some of us, we simply want to forget all about it. And, the sooner the better! We would erase last year from our memory and from the history books if that were possible. And, even among those of us who are comfortable with 2020 having a place in our collective memory, I do not know of anyone who wants to dwell on this past year. Even if we wanted to live in the past, 2020 would not be the year in which we would take residency. Still, there is a great deal you and I can learn from 2020 . . . about our world . . . about our country . . . about our community . . . and about ourselves.

The author of Ecclesiastes writes, There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under heaven: (2b) a time to plant and a time to uproot, (3b) a time to tear down and a time to build, (4a) a time to weep and a time to laugh, (6b) a time to keep and a time to throw away (selections from Eccl 3:1-6). So, when we think about the season of 2020, there are parts of that season that you and I may want or need to throw away. But, there are also parts of that season that you and I might be wise to keep. This morning’s lesson is designed to help us think through this keeping / throwing away process.

Welcome Guests & Visitors

We are so happy to have you join us today! Please fill out a guest card and put it in the collection plate so we can have a record of your attendance. We have a cry room available if needed. One of our greeters would be happy to direct you.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

MESSAGE FROM THE ELDERS

It has almost been a year since the pandemic caused all of us to do things in a different way. One of the most devastating things we had to change is how we worship our God and our Father. This eldership has been faced with a dilemma never witnessed in our life time. We have been very diligent in an attempt to protect our congregation from physical harm. We have an online presence for any of our members whose health could be compromised. We have continuously monitored the virus & by late last summer we were able to open more freely. However, as fall hit, the virus numbers really climbed causing surrounding cities, and then Glenpool, to put in affect a mask mandate. We ask all of our members to comply with the local ordinance in an attempt to help slow down the upward surge of cases. Now that we are at the end of January and the mandate was set to expire today, David Gray called Glenpool to confirm the status of the mandate and found out it will be extended indefinitely. However, he also got clarification from the city on the mandate; the mandate states that a public setting (church is a public setting) where social distancing can be achieved, masks are optional. They do ask, and the elders agree, that masks be worn into and out of the building. The auditorium will be mask optional and the fellowship hall will be mandatory mask for those who feel more comfortable in a completely mask environment. We love each one of you and truly look to the day when we can have full services and full attendance. Our Sunday evening service will still be in-person at 5pm and our Wednesday evening service will still be Zoom only at 7. Thank you for your patience and we ask for your continued prayers for this eldership.
