Our LTC kids are hard at work but they need your help! In order for us to participate in the convention each year - our team is responsible for providing adults to judge events. Combined, our kids are participating in 15 events (some individual, some team); which means we need 7-10 adults to help judge the events either Friday &/or Saturday. The convention is in Norman this year. If you are interested in judging, please see Kaci or Brianna. Thank you for your support!
