Help for Fire Victims

Update from Debbie: I have talked with Robert Prater concerning the children and families affected by the recent fires. He is continuing the process of contacting them about their current needs. He is reaching out to Cleveland and Terlton to see if there is a need there. We discussed the possibility of waiting until late summer, right before school starts, to help these families with school clothes and supplies. Currently these families have had plenty of donations but they have also had an abundance of information to process as well as decisions to make concerning their families. I will update you again soon. Thank you for you generous and giving hearts!
